FATHER MATTHEW.—The New gentleman is in pretty good spirits after his voyage, and is much delighted with the location of his present home. He expresses himself highly pleased with the surrounding views, which are beautifully picturesque and remind him of some spots of delight and scenes of grandeur in his native land.

A more beautiful and invigorating retreat could not be selected than Inwood, the beautiful cottage residence of John P. Neimill, Esq., whose obliging kindness and hospitality cannot but be deeply felt by all the admirers of the Apostle of Temperance.

Inwood is located on an eminence near the brow of the center hill which commands Staten Island, surrounded by trees, and from it a most charming living panorama of the ocean, the bay, and scenery, etc. at the opposite side, is brought to full view.

We visited and welcomed the worthy father to these shores yesterday. He appreciates highly the kindness of the good citizens of this country, for the very flattering manner in which he has been, and is further to be publicly received. He is powerfully an enemy to ostentation—is quite honest and plain. The benevolence generally exhibited through town are pretty faithful, but they lack his full expression of benevolence. He does not enjoy much of that quiet which the design of Mr. Neimill, in offering his retreat, led his friends to expect, his own good nature and the kindness of inquiring friends proving an agreeable peregrination to the congenialities of quiet. Persons of all stations in society are constantly making their way to Inwood, to get a glimpse or shake hands with the world-famed apostle.

The preparations for the public entry of Father Mathew into the City are as follows:

The Committee of Arrangements, who invited guests, will at 2 o'clock, M., proceed from Castle Garden pier in a steamboat to the pier for the occasion, to Quarantine Park, Staten Island, where they will receive on board Father Mathew.

The two will then leave on its return to the City, and will land at Castle Garden pier at about 5 o'clock.

Father Mathew is the City's guest, and extends to him, as to Chief Magistrate, the hospitalities of the city.

The committee of reception at the Harbor being composed of the American Temperance Society and other Associations of the City will be formed as an escort.

The Procession will proceed from the Battery to Broadwater, and thence to Centre, through Central Park, to the east gate of the Park to the City Hall.

The distinguished guest will then be escorted to the Grand Hotel, where he will be entertained by his Honor, the Mayor, and presented by his Honor the Mayor to the citizens from the balcony above which the Mayoralty is situated.

At 4 o'clock, Father Mathew will assemble on the platform of the Board of Health carrossed into effect forthwith.

At a meeting of the Senate Committee of the Board of Health, held June 20, 1848, the following resolutions and resolutions were adopted:

JAMES KELLEY, Chairman
